NOTICES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

It is requested that all communications relating to Subscriptions, Advertisements, &c., be addressed to the "Manager, Hongkong Telegraph" and not to the Editor.

Letters on Editorial matters to be sent to "The Editor" and not to individual members of the staff.

Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer, not necessarily for publication; but as evidence of good faith.

Whilst the columns of the Hongkong Telegraph will always be open for the fair discussion by co-correspondents of all questions affecting public interests, it must be distinctly understood that the Editor does not in any way hold himself responsible for opinions thus expressed.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Advertisers are requested to forward all notices intended for insertion in this day's issue not later than THREE O'CLOCK, so as not to retard the early publication of the paper.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Arrangements have been made to publish The Hongkong Telegraph daily at 4 P.M. Subscribers in the central districts who do not receive their copies before FIVE O'CLOCK will oblige by at once communicating with the Manager.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1882.

In our article of the 16th February on the contemplated seizure by the French of Annam we pointed out that an aggressive act of this kind would be likely to compromise France with the Chinese Government at Peking. Although the forcible seizure of Annam by the French seemed probable, we preferred to believe that they would acquire the country by peaceful means, and not hostile acts which, from whatever point they may be viewed cannot but meet with universal condemnation. What provocation, may we ask, have the Annamese given the French? Have they not faithfully observed the Treaty obligations of 1874, and resigned themselves to the position assigned to them? If so, what excuse can France have for sending her forces into the country under the plea that she was strengthening her garrisons to protect the Annamese from "black flag" marauders, and then suddenly attacking the peaceful garrison in the citadel at Hanoi and seizing the treasure of $1,000,000, belonging to the Annamese Government found therein, and subsequently turning peaceful officials adrift out of their yamens and appropriating their money? Such acts of spoliation and aggression carry us back to remote times and are not associated in our minds with la grande nation of these days. It remains to be seen what China and the European powers will think of this action of the French Government. The unprovoked attack on Tunis was lamentable enough, and has affected France considerably in the estimation of Europe, and the similar line of policy she has inaugurated in the East, regarding Annam, will certainly require Oriental nations to be on their guard against such ruthless proceedings.

INDIAN Police Constable No. 621, who was charged with indecently assaulting a Chinese cook on the 21st of last month, was discharged this morning at the Police Court. From the evidence of Inspector Lindsay, it would appear to have been a case of mistaken identity. The European who the cook said spoke to him on the occasion, could not be found.

TING AHOI, a cook, was brought up this morning before Captain Thomsett charged, at the instance of Hajee Mohamed Sadeck, merchant, with unlawfully taking away out of the possession and against the will of her lawful guardian, an unmarried girl named Salaha, under the age of 14 years, on the 29th April. Mr. Wotton, who appeared for the prosecution, applied for a remand for the appearance of the girl, who is now at Canton. The case was remanded till Thursday at two o'clock.

TELEGRAMS for Bangkok can go forward by mail closing at Singapore at 5 p.m. to day.

H.E. ASANO, now Japanese Minister to Italy, will be leaving shortly for that country, and Mr. Mayeda, Secretary of the Foreign Department will accompany him.

A MARRIED Chinawoman, wife of one Wong Sin, was found dead on her bed yesterday evening in No. 18, Wing Sing Street, opposite No. 5, Police Station. The matter was only reported to the police to-day, when the body was sent to the Civil Hospital. She is supposed to have died from opium poisoning. An inquest will doubtless be held.

It is stated that the President of the Board of Trade will shortly bring in a Bill to enable Gas Companies or Municipal Corporations to provide the electric light. The Bill will authorise Corporations either to supply the light themselves or to sanction its supply by private companies. In any case where a municipal body either refuses to supply the electric light or to allow a private company to do so, the company may apply to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order. These Provisional Orders would only have a duration of seven years, and, at the close of that period, the local bodies could take over the undertaking at its actual value, and without any reference to prospective profits.

The Viceroy of Canton proceeds north by one of the China Merchant Company's fleet and will embark at Canton on Saturday next. He is intended to reach Tientsin about the 14th instant, where Li Hung-chang, it is expected, will await his arrival. A few days will set at rest all speculation as to whether Li Hung-chang's retirement will be for the usual period of twenty seven months or for a hundred days. Momentous consequences would seem to depend on this decision of the Government at Peking, and speaking in the true interests of China, it is to be hoped that the counsel of this sagacious Mandarin will not be lost to the Empire for a longer period than the end of July or beginning of August.

SIXTH Police Constable Hall Singh was charged at the Police Court, this morning with an assault. The complainant, a gardener, said that on the 28th ult. at 7 p.m. defendant and another constable went into his garden at Tsing Tsai Tsai and beat and abused his wife, who lived in the garden. The Sikh also went to complainant's house and gave him two blows, the other constable taking hold of his cue and of that of another gardener and walking both off to Yau-mai-ti Station, where the Inspector discharged them and told him to summon the prisoner. The constable, in his defence, said he was going from Tsing-tsa-tsoi to Hung-ham, and that complainant abused him, and as he (the constable) was not sober, he struck the gardener, but was himself also assaulted. The Punjahee was fined five Mexicanos or 10 days' imprisonment.

THE Tunis correspondent of the Standard telegraphs on March 23rd that Archbishop Lavigne seems inclined to pursue a course of conduct eminently calculated to irritate the European colony, particularly the Italians. He yesterday issued a Pastoral, declaring the Catholic Cemetery to be no longer consecrated ground, and requiring persons having tombs therein to remove them, together with the remains of their friends, to a fresh site at their own expense. This measure, taken against the wish of the English and Italian Consuls, causes universal discontent. The Archbishop is buying large estates all over the Regency. The number of religious communities already established gives Tunis an appearance of Malta. Even Frenchmen here feel alarm at the extent of Monsie. Lavigne's projects. His Grace announces the speedy arrival of a Commission from Rome, bringing him the Cardinal's hat. After the investiture he will appoint a subordinate Bishop, and himself assume a semi-principally state.

WE are glad to note the safe arrival in port of the German 3-masted schooner Bohita, 341, Captain H. Stehr. This vessel it will be remembered left Singapore on February 1st, with a cargo of timber for Messrs. E. Schellhass & Co., and as nothing had been seen or heard of her, it was feared that she had been lost. When we referred to this vessel the other day, we stated that she might possibly have experienced bad weather, and been driven out of her course, and such actually was the case. The following is the schooner's report:—"Left Singapore Feb. 1st, fine weather with N.E. wind as far as 11 deg. N. long, and 111 deg. E. long, on the 24th February experienced heavy gale from N.E. which made the ship labour enormously causing the whole cargo of timber to shift, was thereby compelled to keep off and shaped the course for East about; until Gilo Passage variable winds prevailing, with calms, for about three weeks; after that, light N.E. winds up to Bacheas, from that to Hongkong light S. wind, last day until arrival N.E."

THE other Chinaman concerned in the stealing of the watch from Theodorino Neves, a clerk in the Dock Company, was up this morning at the Police Court. Chinese Police Constable Wong Alo, who was on the look-out for the prisoner, met him in an opium den in Tai-ping-shan Street yesterday evening, and politely asked him to give him a moment's conversation outside in the street, where he interrogated him as to the locus of the watch he had annexed. Prisoner was veracious enough to fall into the trap laid for him by the clever lunko, and said he had pawned it at Canton, the proceeds vanishing in the highly delightful game of fan-tan. The lunko's averments, however, were not admitted by the prisoner, who, unluckily for his personal liberty, was fully identified by Theodorino as the individual who took up the position in his immediate rear, while his companion, who was convicted yesterday, posted himself on his left flank and gave him a shove, in the confusion produced by which the fellow behind, who instantly "vamosed," would seem to have annexed the repeater. Captain Thomsett ordered the prisoner to find two sureties of $50 each to be of good behaviour till next November, in default to be committed until the arrival of that bracing month.

REUTERS wires that "the report of the Select Committee of the House of Lords appointed to inquire into the working of the Land Act, recommends the Government to advance tenants the purchase money." Seeing that the Government has practically passed a vote of censure on this Select Committee, and has declined to recognise its existence, we think it will be generally conceded that the Lords are making themselves very ridiculous in the eyes of the world.

POLICE SERGEANT THOMAS CAMPBELL, while on duty yesterday at the Canton steamer wharf, in private clothes, saw a Chinaman loitering about the gate at the entrance to the Pier. He approached the man, and noticed he was branded on the left side of the neck. When questioned, he said he was waiting for a friend, and that the mark was from a cut made when he was sick, and he also said he had never graduated in the Government University in Arbutnot Road. Campbell, however, did not believe him, and took him to the Gaol to test his statement. His features proved to be quite familiar ones there, he having been deported in January 1877, a very good photograph of him being among the gaol records. The Sergeant asked for a remand for a week to obtain instructions, which was granted by the Magistrate.

As Inspector Hennessy was taking a quiet stroll at five o'clock this morning in Hollywood Road, he observed a hawk coming along, the abnormal bulk of whose sleeve excited the shrewd Irishman's suspicions. Desiring to have his suspicions either confirmed or dissipated, he stopped the hawk and proceeded to tap his sleeve, in which he found an apparently harmless piece of cloth, but upon unfolding the cloth, it was found to contain a very respectable stock-in-trade for any one desiring to enter the house-breaking business, namely a small bundle of floss-sticks (to keep the devil off whilst the premises were being burglarized), 6 skeleton keys, 2 sharp-pointed instruments, and a piece of charcoal. A further brilliant discovery rewarded the early hours of the Inspector, who, on searching the hawk at the Station, found in his purse 2 small keys which had been filed, a box of lucifers, and seven pawn-tickets, the lucifers being doubtless intended to strike a light with in case European bed-rooms might happen to be too dark for the burglar's purpose. There is no doubt the enterprising hawk was proceeding on an extensive marauding expedition when he was, so luckily for the community, overhauled by the Inspector. The prisoner, who has been in gaol before, was remanded for a week, upon the application of Mr. Hennessy, to allow him to make further enquiries.

His Excellency Governor Graça, who arrived yesterday from Macao en route to Yokohama on a special Mission connected with the revision of the treaties between Portugal and Japan, paid a visit in the evening to the Lusitano Club. His Excellency, accompanied by his suite, Messrs. A. J. Bastos, E. Marques, J. L. Hart H. Milner, and Lieutenant Oliveira, arrived at the Club at about half past five, where he was received by Messrs M. C. do Rozario, J. P. da Costa, C. Dianenberg, A. dos Remedios, J. A. dos Remedios, and P. A. da Costa, forming the Committee. The Governor having been conducted to the Drawing Room, several members of the Club were presented to His Excellency by Mr. Rozario, the Chairman, amongst whom were Messrs. A. G. Romano, Dr. Gomes, Dr. Marques, C. V. da Rocha, J. F. da Rosa, R. Moran, A. de Souza, and others, including of course, our linguistic Special. Champagne being introduced, Mr. Rozario, in proposing Governor Graça's health, said it gave the members of the Club great pleasure to have the honour of receiving His Excellency in that institution, which might be considered the focus, as it were, whence Portuguese public opinion in the Colony radiated, enlightening with its beams their compatriots of both sexes in Hongkong, and that much benefit accrued to the Portuguese community, whose welfare the Club had ever at heart, by its establishment in their midst. Mr. Rozario concluded by wishing His Excellency, and ultra a pleasant trip to Japan and a successful termination to the Mission. His Excellency, in responding, said it afforded him much gratification to find himself surrounded by Portuguese in that room. A large number of them had flocked to Hongkong for the purpose of earning a livelihood, which, unfortunately, their birthplace in the neighbouring Colony did not offer opportunities for doing. The circumstances of the times had rendered this impracticable, but, nevertheless, the Portuguese had the high honour of being the pioneers of civilization, commerce, and Christianity in the Far East. It was not in the power of the mother country to change the existing unfavorable condition of affairs, as she had not the means of so doing, and so they must rely upon themselves and their own exertions. As to the industries in Macao, they were all in the hands of the Chinese, with whom it was impossible for people of a different form of civilization and of different habits of life to compete, because, in consequence of the habits of the Chinese and their cheap mode of living, what a Chinaman could do for twenty-five cents, enabling him to live and leaving him a margin of profit, could not be done by people brought up differently, under four or five times the sum. Navigation by means of lorches, which in former times was carried on very extensively, from Macao, belonged to the history of the past, as nowadays steam communication had supplanted everything in that line in the coasting traffic. He hoped things generally in Macao would improve, and the people be rendered more happy. Mutual exertions and help on the part of the Portuguese in these parts would contribute to that result, and he was sure they would all work for the benefit of the Portuguese people. His Excellency then went round the Club, expressing himself much pleased with all the arrangements for the comfort and amusement of the members, the Library especially, and, with his suite, took his departure after spending nearly an hour in the institution. His Excellency and suite proceeded to Yokohama this afternoon by the Oceanic.

THE visitors to the City Hall Museum for the week ending April 30th, were:—European, 223; Chinese, 3,025; total, 3,248.

WE would remind our readers of the Italian Opera Company's performance of "La Favorita," which will take place this evening for the benefit of Signora Sillini. Almost the whole of the seats have been taken, and we do not doubt that the representation of Donizetti's magnificent work will be the great event of the present operatic season.

THE hawk who was charged on the 24th ult. with being concerned with another man not in custody in stealing a silver watch, worth $42, from the person of Theodorino Neves, a clerk in the employ of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, was sentenced yesterday by Mr. Wodehouse to six months' hard labour. Inspector Staunton said the watch had not been found here, but that he heard it had been found at Canton. The prisoner admitted a previous conviction for larceny.

Shipyards are in progress in the China seas and Japan.

COLLISION BETWEEN THE MIKA-DO'S YACHT AND THE U.S. MAN-OF-WAR "ALERT."

The Hinge News of the 19th ult. says:—"At one o'clock yesterday the U.S.S. Alert steamed out of port homeward bound, amid cheers from the crews of the other men-of-war in harbour, the band of the flag-ship playing "Home Sweet Home" and other appropriate airs. This morning the Alert is again at anchor in this harbour, having in the short interval narrowly escaped one of the most terrible perils of the sea.

Everything went well on board the Alert yesterday until about eleven o'clock p.m., when a vessel was seen approaching on the starboard, the position being about 14 miles below Cape Hino. The weather at the time was beautifully calm, although a little hazy, and as the two ships became closer and closer, it appeared evident to those in the Alert that the stranger—which afterwards proved to be the Emperor's yacht the Fingee-kau—was ignorant of their proximity. The steam whistle of the Alert was then sounded repeatedly, and several shouts to the crew of the Fingee, but for some inexplicable reason no response was elicited. The Fingee continued her course, and her sharp bow struck the Alert just forward of the fore-rigging, crashing right through the vessel's side, and forcing the anchor up to the foremast, which has been splintered by the shock. Nothing but the exercise of the utmost presence of mind, and the rigid discipline which prevails on board a man-of-war, saved the Alert from sharing a similar fate to that which befell the Prinzess Victoria some years ago. The vessel was found to be cut right down to the water's edge, and large quantities of water poured in. The starboard guns were quickly run over to port, thus giving the vessel a list and raising the injured part of the side clear of the water, while the gap was stuffed with hammocks and bedding, which were firmly netted over so as to withstand pressure. The Alert's head was then turned towards Kobe, where she arrived without further accident, the weather fortunately continuing extraordinarily fine.

Everything went well on board the Alert's men jumped on board the Fingee, and were brought up to Kobe in that vessel, which steamed quickly off, without making any inquiry respecting the state of the Alert, or whether assistance was needed. We are informed that a person on board the yacht called out in English:—"Have you sounded your bell? Are you making any water?" but before any reply could be given the vessels were widely separated, the Fingee steaming away for Kobe.

We are happy to be able to state that the casualties have been extremely trifling on board the Alert. One man who was asleep on a chest near where the Fingee's bow entered, received a rather severe cut on the head, and a few others were slightly scratched, but altogether there is cause for congratulation that matters are not much worse. Indeed if there had been any sea on the Alert must have foundered."

The same paper of the 20th says:—"We have succeeded in obtaining some further particulars respecting the unfortunate collision between the Alert and Fingee-kau, which explain how it came about that the former vessel carried a starboard helm at the time of the accident. It appears that when the Fingee was first sighted from the Alert, she was well away on the starboard bow, her green light only being visible, and it seemed likely that, if both vessels continued their course, they would have gone clear of each other. The officer in charge of the Alert at the time starboarded as a matter of extra precaution, and then it was that the Fingee's helm was ported, which had the effect of throwing her in the same direction as the Alert. At the time of collision both vessels were backing their engines, and as the Fingee swung clear they headed the same way.

The statement has been confirmed that no offer of assistance was made by the Fingee. Her Captain was asked to allow his vessel to be lashed to the Alert, but instead of doing so the Fingee steamed away, not having received any damage beyond a few trifling injuries to the wood-work about her bows.

A Court of Inquiry will be held on board the Richmond to-day, but most probably the result of the proceedings will not be made public.

It seems that a Chinaman employed as a servant on board the Alert, must have been much more seriously injured during the collision with the Fingee-kau than was first anticipated. The unfortunate man became paralysed from the effects of a blow he received, and died yesterday.

THE FRENCH AT HANOI.

The Haiphong correspondent of the Daily Press in a communication dated the 24th ult. stated that the Commandant of the French troops at Hanoi had determined to make an assault on the citadel of Hanoi on the Wednesday following (the 26th ult.), and painted in glowing colours the preparations which the 7,000 Annamese and Chinese, with their cannon and mitrailleurs had made to give the soldiers of the Republic a war-memorial. We have immensely enjoyed the correspondence of this "special," although we had good reasons for believing that his reports were exaggerated and highly colored. Of course, everybody knew that the Saigon Government had despatched a comparatively large body of troops to Hanoi, and it was publicly stated in Saigon that a demonstration against the Black Flag pirates had been resolved on. It has also been widely recognised that the ultimate occupation of Tonquin by the French was merely a matter of time; but few people believed that matters were quite ripe for the mask being thrown off. France has her hands quite full at the present time in Europe and Tunis, without mixing herself up in further trouble in the Far East. However, on hearing of the reported expedition to Hanoi, we deemed it our duty to place ourselves in communication with reliable authorities in Saigon on the subject, and received assurances that the movement was merely a relief of the French Garrisons in the country, but that a demonstration against the Black Flag pirates was under consideration and likely to take place. If we are to believe recent information received from Haiphong, the French have actually taken the bull by the horns, and occupied the citadel of Hanoi. Our correspondent is a reliable gentleman, whose good faith is beyond question; but under all circumstances it will be wise, considering that rumour is not always accurate, to accept his statements with some slight amount of reserve.

It would appear that on the 25th inst., the French commenced to bombard the citadel of Hanoi. Whether they, in the first place, informed the Annamese that such was their intention, or requested the natives to quietly give up the fortress is not stated; but we shall take steps to satisfy ourselves on that point, as it is one of much importance. The firing commenced from two gunboats at 8 in the morning, and the citadel capitulated at 10. It is reported that 300 Annamese were either killed or wounded, and that the French losses amounted to 6 or 7 hurt. This is the usual style of modern warfare, when Christian nations meet inoffensive and unenlightened barbarians. After this glorious victory, the gallant Frenchmen entered the citadel, and, according to our information, annexed the tidy little sum of one million dollars, the property of the Annamese Government, which they found in the treasury. This was only the beginning of what seems one of the vilest plundering raids of modern times. On April 26th a party of men from the French gunboats forcibly took possession of the chief Mandarin's yamen at Haiphong, and looted the sum of $66,000. The chivalrous warriors who set out from Saigon to put down the Black Flag pirates, after ruthlessly murdering hundreds of inoffensive Annamese, thought it politic to vary the monotony of unrelenting slaughter by a little wholesale house-breaking and plundering. Small fishes are proverbially sweet, but it is surely degrading for the gallant French nation to descend to contemptible expedients of this character. On the morning of the 28th, a gunboat left for Saigon with the news of the capture of Hanoi, and another for Hue to bring the French Minister to the scene of action. We are told that trade is brisk; that the Chinese are doing well, and hoping to do better; and that the natives are absolutely indifferent to the course of events.

Our "Special Correspondent" has received his orders to get ready, and will at once take the "war-path." We do not like to say too much about this business, until we receive confirmation of the above report; but if our correspondent has made no mistake, the French Republic has a deal to answer for.

THE ONE THOUSAND GUINEAS.

It was generally believed in England last racing season that the two year old fillies were of superior class to the colts, and there can be little doubt that on public form good grounds existed for this belief. Geheimmis, a speedy daughter of Rosierian and Nameless, won seven events right off the reel, retiring with an unbeaten certificate; Kerresse, by Cremorne out of Hazeldean, only suffered one reverse out of six attempts, in the Richmond Stakes at Goodwood where Dutch Oven, in receipt of 40s., beat her a short head. St. Marguerite on the same terms running a dead heat with Lord Rosebery's flying filly; Dutch Oven won nine races out of twelve for Lord Falmouth, and St. Marguerite, although beaten seven times out of eleven tries, showed form worthy of her distinguished lineage, whilst Nellie —a slashing daughter of Hermit and Hippia, winners of the Derby and Oaks in 1867—ran most consistently in eight races against first rate cattle, although only thrice successful. Truly enough when the presumed best of the colts, Bruce—by See-Saw out of Carline—met Nellie and St. Marguerite in the Criterion Stakes, he won very handsomely after a desperate race, but then he was in receipt of one pound besides the allowance for sex, which in such a severe finish must have told. Besides there can be no doubt that both Geheimmis and Kerresse were at least 5lbs. in front of Nellie and St. Marguerite, although it was generally considered that Mr. Crawford's slashing sister Theobais was susceptible of the greatest amount of improvement. When we received the intelligence that Shotover, a second class filly, that as a two year old failed to win a single race, had repeated the Formosa victory in the Two Thousand, the probability of a repetition of the Blink Bonny coup of a quarter of a century ago in the Derby seemed more likely to be realised than it has ever had a chance of being since Mr. James Merry kept Sunshine in the stable, and sent out the mighty Macgregor to do battle for the "yellow and black" against Kingcraft and a field of platers. As a two year old Shotover was not within 100s. of the best of the fillies, and yet she managed to beat the pick of the colts in the Two Thousand Guineas. And now she has succumbed to St. Marguerite in the One Thousand, Mr. Crawford the owner of the one of the chestnut having won the same race a year ago with Theobais, a full sister to the victress on the present occasion.

NEWMARKET FIRST SPRING MEETING.

Friday 28th April 1882.

THE ONE THOUSAND GUINEAS STAKES, a subscription of 100 sovs each, half forfeit, for three year old fillies, 8cs. 12lbs. each; the owner of the second to receive 200 sovs out of the stakes, and the third to save his stake. Rowley Mile—62 sovs.

Mr. W. S. Crawford's ch. f. St. Marguerite, by Hermit—Devotion.....(C. Wood) 1
The Duke of Westminster's ch. f. Shotover, by Hermit—Stry Shot.....(F. Archer) 2
Mr. L. de Rothschild's ch. f. Nellie, by Hermit—Hippia.....(G. Fordham) 3

St. Marguerite competed in no less than 11 races as a two year old, winning on four occasions. She made her debut in the valuable Hursbourne Stakes at Stockbridge, in June, where she finished a good third to Geheimmis and Whitechapel, and a week later ran a dead heat with Dutch Oven for the same berth behind Kerresse and Marden in the Newmarket July, although behind the winner. Two days later Fordham rode the daughter of Hermit and Devotion to victory in the Chesterfield, winning in a common canter from rather an indifferent field. At Goodwood St. Marguerite was sent out for the Richmond Stakes, but Dutch Oven, by a short head, beat Mr. Crawford's filly and Kerresse, the latter conceding 4lbs. running a dead heat for second place; and in the Rous Memorial, at the same meeting, Dutch Oven again proved her superiority, beating St. Marguerite on this occasion by three lengths, Pursebearer dividing the pair. Doncaster was the next battle ground selected for the slashing sister to Theobais, a walk over for the Municipal Stakes on the St. Leger day, and a half length beating by Lord Falmouth's Little Sister being the result of her journey to the famous Yorkshire town. In the Middle Park Plate, St. Marguerite again had the bad fortune to get "placed," occupying the third berth to Kerresse, and the American colt Gerald in a field of 13 runners, Lord Rosebery's filly conceding 4lbs. and winning very cleverly by a length, with half a length between the second and third. On the following day, St. Marguerite, with odds of 100 to 12 laid on her, beat Patience by six lengths in the Renewal of the Bretby Stakes, in the commonest of canter. At the Houghton meeting, C. Wood had the mount on Mr. Crawford's filly for the Criterion, but she was unequal to the task of giving Bruce one pound and her sexual allowance, the Derby favorite getting home cleverly by a length from Nellie, three quarters of a length separating Mr. Rothschild's representative from St. Marguerite. In the Home-bred Post Foal Stakes three days after Foxhall's Cambridgeshire victory, St. Marguerite was made a warm favorite against Paragon and Berwick, and justified the confidence of her supporters by winning cleverly by half a length from the first named. Thus it will be seen that the daughter of the sensational Derby winner, was a most consistent public performer throughout her two year old career. In the whole of her 11 races, she was never once unplaced although meeting the highest class fields. It was confidently believed that St. Marguerite would greatly improve during the interregnum between two and three year old, and this belief has been justified by her having followed in the footsteps of her sister Theobais in the ladies race over the Rowley Mile. St. Marguerite was entered for the Column Produce Stakes at the Newmarket August, set for decision in April, but would most probably be kept over for her more valuable engagements. The winner of the One Thousand has, unfortunately, no engagement either in the Derby or Grand Prix de Paris; but she is entered for the Oaks and St. Leger, and has besides many valuable liabilities to meet at Ascot and Goodwood.

Shotover, the second to Mr. Crawford's filly in the One Thousand, ran three times unsuccessfully as a two year old, and won the Duke of Westminster's first Two Thousand Guineas. It is quite on the cards that St. Marguerite, in the way of her Shotover may follow up Bend Or's Derby success for the "yellow jacket, and black cap."

Nellie, like her two conquerors in the One Thousand, is by Hermit, and there can be no doubt that Mr. Chaplin's chestnut son of Newminster, the winner of probably the most sensational Derby on record, has fairly made his mark as one of the most successful stallions of the century. Hippia, the dam of Nellie, won the Oaks for the late Baron Rothschild in 1867, a piece of good fortune for the Baron, as Achievement was at least a stone better animal than the daughter of King Tom, but on that particular day happened to be the victim of a sexual ailment which prevented her showing anything approaching her true form. Nellie ran eight times as a two year old, scoring three victories. Her debut was made at head-quarters in July, where, starting at 10 to 1 in a field of six runners, she landed the Exeter Stakes with consummate ease. At Lewes she ran unplaced to Exeter, being beaten by Crown and Herne the Hunter, in the Great South of England Breeders Stakes; but at York Autumn Meeting she greatly improved on this form, Fordham steering her to a clever victory in the Prince of Wales Stakes of 1875 from the flying Dutch Oven and five others. It must be noted, however, that Lord Falmouth's "crack" was conceding the daughter of Hippia—7lbs.—third to Kerresse and Dutch Oven at even weights in the Doncaster Champagne was Nellie's next performance, and then in the Rous Memorial at Newmarket in September, being beaten by Crown and Herne, although only by a short neck, Gerald being third on this occasion, with three others unplaced. Dutch Oven and Nellie again met in the Clearwell at the Newmarket October Meeting—with the same result, the brown daughter of Dutch Skater and Cantinere conceding her short rival 3lbs, and gaining the victory by a short head; and two days later the excellence of the two year old form was demonstrated when Nellie, at weight for age, won the Great Challenge Stakes from Scobell, Tristan, Peter, Marinka, Poulet, and Chariot. Mr. Rothschild's greatly improved filly made her final appearance as a two year old in the Criterion Stakes, where, after looking all over a winner until fifty yards from home, Bruce won her down, and finally beat her by a length, St. Marguerite being third, three quarters of a length away. Nellie was reported amiss during the Spring, so it is likely enough, she was not quite up to the mark when she succumbed to St. Marguerite and Shover in the race under review, and although entered for the Two Thousand Guineas, she would probably miss that engagement. Nellie has no liability in the Derby; but she will have an opportunity of again meeting St. Marguerite in the Oaks and St. Leger.

SHANGHAI RACES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)
By Telegraph.

Shanghai, 1st May, 1882.
Our Spring Meeting commenced this morning under most favorable circumstances. The weather, which had been threatening for several days, fortunately kept fine, and the course was in capital order. Proceedings commenced with the Legacy Cup, which fell to Merry Monk after a pretty race, Mr. St. Andrew's pony having evidently made great improvement since his last appearance in public. Prejudice, having no first Cornet against him, landed the Critterians easily enough in 2d; and then a first class field came out for the Griffins. Montezuma had been greatly fancied ever since he won the Trial Stakes, and retained his pride of place to the end, although he was closely pressed in the quotation list by Potheen, Foxhound, Piller, Ruy Blas and several others. In the race Montezuma always held a good place, and eventually won very cleverly in 1.30 although had Alara got well away, the result might have been different. Jim Fearon's success was of course very popular, and he was loudly cheered when the pony came back to scale. Wild Dash won Mr. Kerfoot his first race in Shanghai in the Cathay Cup, and then Prejudice had another easy task set him in the Kiang-su Plate over a mile and three-quarters. The Jockey Cup was won by Imp, and the Taotai's Cup by Merry Monk, but the last named was lucky to get home first, as Shamrock, who got a very bad start, was rapidly closing with the dun at the finish. The day's sport concluded with the Racing Stakes, which fell to Foxhound, for whom Tails loco was refused the other day, after a fine race.

Details are appended:—
FIRST DAY, MONDAY, MAY 1ST, 1882.

Mr. Edmund's br. Foxhound (Mr. Meyerink) 1

SHANGHAI.

Tls. 1,000 have been offered and refused for Foxhound.
Etiquette requires too days of mourning to be observed by Li Hung-chang. It is open to him to observe 27 months of mourning for his deceased parent, if he likes to retire from office for that period.
The steamer Nagoya Maru reports that on the 23rd instant she spoke to the American barque Europa, in Lat. 32.14 N. Long. 127.53 E. The barque is from New Bedford on a whaling cruise, and desired to be reported.
District Magistrate Chin went round yesterday to most of the Consuls to protest against the new jinnicksha license arrangement. He would not mind an increase of the license fees to $18 or $20 a month, but putting them up to auction, as he phrases it, really hurts his feelings.
The I.G. of the I.M. Customs has been made (we presume an honorary) Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. What for, goodness knows. There are a few honorary Knights, Egyptian or Siamese nobilities, but Sir Robert Hart is a British subject, which they are not.
Last Sunday, a couple of shootists went to the neighbourhood of Woosung to bag the savage snipe, when an irate buffalo charged them. One of them, after a smart run, took refuge in a tree, and the gallop so improved his wind that he won a mile race on Monday; the other solicited protection from the Bar signal, which he climbed up a tree, and the agriculturist taking home the infuriated animal.
The Ta Hwangti has devised a fresh method of insulating Tributary Princes by instituting an order, which he proposes to confer on foreigners only. Foreigners, who are all inferior persons to the denizens of the Flowery Land, as everybody knows, are not as a rule to share in the decorations which meritorious Celestials enjoy. The order resembles the Legion d'Honneur, or the Order of Leopold of Belgium, inasmuch as there are different grades. The highest grade is to be offered to Reigning European Sovereigns. Such orders can only be accepted on reciprocal terms; a special mission is usually sent to the Sovereign, who gives an audience. Will the Hwangti give a fitting reception to the Envoys of the reigning Sovereigns who send him an order in return? Certainly not. If they are received at all, they will be received as the Messengers of Loyal Tributary States. However, we look with interest to the idiot (if there be one) constituting it when published in the Peking Gazette. The thing has been for some time under weigh, and we may have some remarks to make on a future occasion. We do not understand why our contemporary calls it the order of the Double Dragon; that is a well known chop on Drillings, it is true.—Mercury.

TIENTSIN.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

20th April.
I am surprised that you people in Shanghai do not know the I. G.'s mission in Shanghai; none of your papers mention it. The Korean Ambassador in February last, in connection with the Tsungli Yamen, arranged for the I. G. to organize a Customs service in Corea the same as in China; Mr. Hughes, of Chefoo, leaves for Japan, and goes thence to Corea, on this mission. Commander Shufeldt, as United States Minister, goes via Chefoo to Seoul, and, as reported by Chinese, by the Chinese gunvessel Chinghai.
March 21st, 1882.
The Peking Gazette just arrived confirms Li Hung-chang's application to goon leave to Hupoh for a month, and the Governor-General of Canton is to take his place.
The Korean Ambassadors have arrived from Peking and at 1 p.m. to-day went on board the Chinese gunboat Chinghai; he received a salute of two guns instead of Chinese three; this perhaps may be the Korean way of saluting; in the gunboat their Excellencies and suite proceed to Seoul, and it is reported in Shanghai that the Chinghai will call at Chefoo and take in Commander Shufeldt also.
It is reported that Mr. Watson of Hankow has been engaged by Mr. Tang King-sing; so their scheme cannot be worked without foreigners. The Overland Telegraph Company has issued a notice that from the 18th instant, the cost for telegrams will be 30 Mexican cents per word, with a minimum of 7 words, instead of 20 cents as before. So with the new change, placing it in the hands of the comprador class prices rise. I believe few messages will go forward, and high charges will not pay those concerned. From Kiashta to London the charge is not quite 20 cents per word against from Tientsin to Shanghai it is 30 cents. However, freights from Tientsin to Shanghai are one third per ton by the C.M.S.N. Co., and telegrams have risen from 20 to 30 cents per word. Really, it is high time that Mr. Tong King-sing engaged Mr. Watson since Mr. Butler has gone home.—Shanghai Mercury.

MAILS EXPECTED.

THE AMERICAN MAIL.
The P. M. steamer City of Tokio, with the succeeding American mail, left San Francisco on the 8th April, and is due here on or about the 7th May.

STEAMERS EXPECTED.

The Indo-China S. N. Co.'s steamer Moray left Singapore on the 30th April, and may be expected here on or about the 6th instant.

HAIR DRESSING SALOON
HONGKONG HOTEL.

W. P. MOORE begs to inform the Gentlemen of Hongkong and Visitors that he has reduced the price of Hair-Cutting to 50 cents. Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, he guarantees to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be excelled in any part of the World.
Hair-Cutting.....50 Cents.
Shampooing.....25 Cents.
Shaving.....25 Cents.
Trimming Beards.....25 Cents.
MONTHLY CUSTOMERS TAKEN AT REDUCED RATES.
RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET.
Mr. MOORE begs to recommend his GOOD SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD.
The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely content that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.
Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate. [268]

Commercial.

THIS DAY, FOUR P.M.

The report of business in Shanghai has effected a wonderful improvement in the market status of Docks. Whilst the stock was freely offered here at 110 and 111 per cent. premium, there were plenty buyers in the Model Settlement at 114 and 115. Of course, as soon as this state of affairs became generally known here, the stock became much firmer, and good business was transacted for cash at 114½ and 115. At the last quoted rate, the scrip is now in great demand; but no shares are forthcoming. A few more Docks have changed hands at 50 per cent. premium; but there are more sellers at the rate, and the stock may be said to be rather weak. All other stocks show a slight depreciation.

Hongkong and Shanghai Bank—115 per cent. premium, buyers.

Union Insurance Society of Canton—$1,600 per share.

China Traders' Insurance Company—$1,600 per share.

North China Insurance—Tls. 1,225 per share, ex. div.

HAIR DRESSING SALOON
HONGKONG HOTEL.

W. P. MOORE begs to inform the Gentleman of Hongkong and Visitors that he has reduced the price of Hair Cutting to 50 cents.
Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, the patrons to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be excelled in any part of the World.

Hair Cutting, Shampooing, &c., &c., 50 Cents.
Shaving, Trimming, &c., 25 Cents.
Trimming Beards, &c., 25 Cents.
Monthly Customers' TAKEN AT REDUCED RATES.

RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SHARPENED.
Mr. Moore begs to recommend his GROOM, SHAMPOO, WASH
to the public as unrivalled by any preparator ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root, the native of the Philippine Islands, never used by anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this shampoo (Wash) as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD.

The proprietor offers the "Wash" to the public entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest the decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs, or use that has property it allows the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. Moore has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate.

NOTICES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

It is requested that all communications relating to Subscriptions, Advertisements, &c., be addressed to the "Manager, Hongkong Telegraph," and not to the Editor.

Letters on Editorial matters to be sent to "The Editor" and not to individual members of the staff.

Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the name and address of the writers, not necessarily for publication; but as evidence of good faith.

Whilst the columns of the Hongkong Telegraph will always be open for the fair discussion by correspondents of all questions affecting public interests, it must be distinctly understood that the Editor does not in any way hold himself responsible for opinions thus expressed.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Advertisers are requested to forward all notices intended for insertion in this day's issue not later than THREE O'CLOCK, so as not to retard the early publication of the paper.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Arrangements have been made to publish The Hongkong Telegraph daily at 4 P.M. Subscribers in the central districts who do not receive their copies before FIVE O'CLOCK will oblige by at once communicating with the Manager.

The Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1882.

In our article of the 16th February on the contemplated seizure by the French of Annam, we pointed out that an aggressive act of this kind would be likely to compromise France with the Chinese Government at Peking. Although the forcible seizure of Annam by the French seemed probable, we preferred to believe that they would acquire the country by peaceful means, and not hostile acts which, from whatever point they may be viewed cannot but meet with universal condemnation. What provocation, may we ask, have the Annamese given the French? Have they not faithfully observed the Treaty obligations of 1874, and resigned themselves to the position assigned to them? If so, what excuse can France have for sending her forces into the country under the plea that she was strengthening her garrisons to protect the Annamese from "black flag" marauders, and then suddenly attacking the peaceful garrison in the citadel at Hanoi and seizing the treasure of $1,000,000, belonging to the Annamese Government found therein, and subsequently turning peaceful officials adrift out of their yamens and appropriating their money? Such acts of spoliation and aggression carry us back to remote times and are not associated in our minds with la grande nation of these days. It remains to be seen what China and the European powers will think of this action of the French Government. The unprovoked attack on Tunis was lamentable enough, and has affected France considerably in the estimation of Europe, and the similar line of policy she has inaugurated in the East, regarding Annam, will certainly require Oriental nations to be on their guard against such ruthless proceedings.

INDIAN Police Constable No. 621, who was charged with indecently assaulting a Chinese cook on the 21st of last month, was discharged this morning at the Police Court. From the evidence of Inspector Lindsay, it would appear to have been a case of mistaken identity. The European who the cook said spoke to him on the occasion, could not be found.

TING AHOI, a cook, was brought up this morning before Captain Thomsett charged, at the instance of Hajee Mahomed Sadeck, merchant, with unlawfully taking away out of the possession and against the will of her lawful guardian, an unmarried girl named Safaha, under the age of 14 years, on the 29th April. Mr. Wotton, who appeared for the prosecution, applied for a remand for the appearance of the girl, who is now at Canton. The case was remanded till Thursday at two o'clock.

TELEGRAMS for Bangkok can go forward by mail closing at Singapore at 5 p.m. to-day.

H.E. ASANO, now Japanese Minister to Italy, will be leaving shortly for that country, and Mr. Mayeda, Secretary of the Foreign Department will accompany him.

A MARRIED Chinawoman, wife of one Wong Sin, was found dead on her bed yesterday evening in No. 18, Wing Sing Street, opposite No. 5, Police Station. The matter was only reported to the police to-day, when the body was sent to the Civil Hospital. She is supposed to have died from opium poisoning. An inquest will doubtless be held.

It is stated that the President of the Board of Trade will shortly bring in a Bill to enable Gas Companies or Municipal Corporations to provide the electric light. The Bill will authorise Corporations either to supply the light themselves or to sanction its supply by private Companies. In any case where a municipal body either refuses to supply the electric light or to allow a private Company to do so, the Company may apply to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order. These Provisional Orders would only have a duration of seven years, and, at the close of that period, the local bodies could take over the undertaking at its actual value, and without any reference to prospective profits.

THE Viceroy of Canton proceeds north by one of the China Merchant Company's fleet and will embark at Canton on Saturday next. He is timed to reach Tientsin about the 14th instant, where Li Hung-chang, it is expected, will await his arrival. A few days will set at rest all speculation as to whether Li Hung-chang's retirement will be for the usual period of twenty seven months or for a hundred days. Momentous consequences would seem to depend on this decision of the Government at Peking, and speaking in the true interests of China, it is to be hoped that the counsel of this sagacious Mandarin will not be lost to the Empire for a longer period than the end of July or beginning of August.

SIXTH Police Constable Ball Singh was charged at the Police Court, this morning with an assault. The complainant, a gardener, said that on the 28th ult. at 7 p.m., defendant and another constable went into his garden at Tsai Tsai Tsai and beat and abused his wife, who lived in the garden. The Sikh also went to complainant's house and gave him two blows, the other constable taking hold of his cue and that of another gardener and walking both off to Yau-mai Station, where the Inspector discharged them and told him to summon the prisoner. The constable, in his defence, said he was going from Tsai-tsai-tsai to Hung-ham, and that complainant abused him, and as he (the constable) was not sober, he struck the gardener, but was himself also assaulted. The Punjaabee was fined five Mexicanos or 10 days' imprisonment.

THE Tunis correspondent of the Standard telegraphs on March 23rd, that Archbishop Lavigne seems inclined to pursue a course of conduct eminently calculated to irritate the European colony, particularly the Italians. He yesterday issued a Pastoral, declaring the Catholic Cemetery to be no longer consecrated ground, and requiring persons having tombs therein to remove them, together with the remains of their friends, to a fresh site at their own expense. This measure, taken against the wish of the English and Italian Consuls, causes universal discontent. The Archbishop is buying large estates all over the Regency. The number of religious communities already established gives Tunis an appearance of Malta. Even Frenchmen here feel alarm at the extent of Monseigneur Lavigne's projects. His Grace announces the speedy arrival of a Commission from Rome, bringing him the Cardinal's hat. After the investiture he will appoint a subordinate Bishop, and himself assume a semi-princely state.

WE are glad to note the safe arrival in port of the German 3-masted schooner Donita, 341, Captain H. Stehr. This vessel it will be remembered left Singapore on February 1st, with a cargo of timber for Messrs. E. Schellhaus & Co., and as nothing had been seen or heard of her, it was feared that she had been lost. When we referred to this vessel the other day, we stated that she might possibly have experienced bad weather, and been driven out of her course, and such actually was the case. The following is the schooner's report:—"Left Singapore Feb. 1st, fine weather with N.E. wind as far as 11 deg. N. long. and 111 deg. E. long., on the 24th February experienced heavy gale from N.E. which made the ship labour enormously causing the whole cargo of timber to shift, was thereby compelled to keep off and shaped the course for East about; until Giloil Passage variable winds prevailing, with calms, for about three weeks; after that, light N.E. winds up to Baclaea, from that to Hongkong light S. wind, last day until arrival N.E."

THE other Chinaman concerned in the stealing of the watch from Theodolito Neves, a clerk in the Dock Company, was up this morning at the Police Court. Chinese Police Constable Wong Aloi, who was on the look-out for the prisoner, met him in an opium divan in Tai-ping-shan Street yesterday evening, and politely asked him to give him a moment's conversation outside in the street, where he interrogated him as to the locus of the watch he had annexed. Prisoner was verdant enough to fall into the trap laid for him by the clever lunko, and said he had pawned it at Canton, the proceeds vanishing in the highly delightful game of fan-tan. The lunko's averments, however, were not admitted by the prisoner, who, unluckily for his personal liberty, was fully identified by Theodolito as the individual who took up the position in his immediate rear, while his companion, who was convicted yesterday, posted himself on his left flank and gave him a shove, in the confusion produced by which the fellow behind, who instantly "vamosco," would seem to have annexed the repeater. Captain Thomsett ordered the prisoner to find two sureties of $50 each to be of good behaviour till next November, in default to be committed until the arrival of that bracing month.

REUTERS wires that "the report of the Select Committee of the House of Lords appointed to inquire into the working of the Land Act, recommends the Government to advance tenants the purchase money." Seeing that the Government has practically passed a vote of censure on this Select Committee, and has declined to recognise its existence, we think it will be generally conceded that the Lords are making themselves very ridiculous in the eyes of the world.

POLICE SERGEANT THOMAS CAMPBELL, while on duty yesterday at the Canton steamer wharf, in private clothes, saw a Chinaman loitering about the gate at the entrance to the Pier. He approached the man, and noticed he was branded on the left side of the neck. When questioned, he said he was waiting for a friend, and that the mark was from a cut made when he was sick, and he also said he had never graduated in the Government University in Arbuthnot Road. Campbell, however, did not believe him, and took him to the Gaol to test his statement. His features proved to be quite familiar ones there, he having been deported in January 1877, a very good photograph of him being amongst the gaol records. The Sergeant asked for a remand for a week to obtain instructions, which was granted by the Magistrate.

AS Inspector Hennessy was taking a quiet stroll at five o'clock this morning in Hollywood Road, he observed a hawk coming along, the abnormal bulk of whose sleeve excited the sharp-eyed Irishman's suspicions. Desiring to have his suspicions either confirmed or dissipated, he stopped the hawk and proceeded to tap his sleeve, in which he found an apparently harmless piece of cloth, but upon unfolding the cloth, it was found to contain a very respectable stock-in-trade for any one desiring to enter the house-breaking business, namely a small bundle of Joss-sticks (to keep the devil off whilst the premises were being burglarized), 6 skeleton keys, 2 sharp-pointed instruments, and a piece of charcoal. A further brilliant discovery rewarded the early hours of the Inspector, who, on searching the hawk at the Station, found in his purse 2 small keys which had been filed, a box of lucifers, and seven pawn-tickets, the lucifers being doubtless intended to strike a light with in case European bed-rooms might happen to be too dark for the burglar's purpose. There is no doubt the enterprising hawk was proceeding on an extensive marauding expedition when he was, so luckily for the community, overhauled by the Inspector. The prisoner, who has been in gaol before, was remanded for a week, upon the application of Mr. Hennessy, to allow him to make further enquiries.

HIS Excellency Governor Graca, who arrived yesterday from Macao en route to Yokohama on a special Mission connected with the revision of the treaties between Portugal and Japan, paid a visit in the evening to the Lusitania Club. His Excellency, accompanied by his suite, Messrs. A. J. Bastos, E. Marques, J. L. Hart H. Milner, and Lieutenant Oliveira, arrived at the Club at about half past five, where he was received by Messrs M. C. do Rozario, J. P. da Costa, C. Danenberg, A. dos Remedios, J. A. dos Remedios and P. A. da Costa, forming the Committee. The Governor having been conducted to the Drawing Room, several members of the Club were presented to His Excellency by Messrs. A. G. Romano, Dr. Gomes, Dr. Marques, C. V. da Rocha, J. F. da Rosa, R. Moran, A. de Souza and others, including, of course, our linguistic Special. Champagne being introduced, Mr. Rozario, in proposing Governor Graca's health, said it gave the members of the Club great pleasure to have the honour of receiving His Excellency in that institution, which might be considered the focus, as it were, whence Portuguese public opinion in the Colony radiated, enlightening with its beams their compatriots of both sexes in Hongkong, and that much benefit accrued to the Portuguese community, whose welfare the Club had ever at heart, by its establishment in their midst. Mr. Rozario concluded by wishing His Excellency and suite a pleasant trip to Japan and a successful termination to the Mission. His Excellency, in responding, said it afforded him much gratification to find himself surrounded by Portuguese in that room. A large number of them had flocked to Hongkong for the purpose of earning a livelihood, which, unfortunately, their birthplace in the neighbouring Colony did not offer opportunities for doing. The circumstances of the times had rendered this impracticable, but, nevertheless, the Portuguese had the high honor of being the pioneers of civilization, commerce, and Christianity in the Far East. It was not in the power of the mother country to change the existing unfavorable condition of affairs, as she had not the means of so doing, and so they must rely upon themselves and their own exertions. As to the industries in Macao, they were all in the hands of the Chinese, with whom it was impossible for people of a different form of civilization and of different habits of life to compete, because, in consequence of the habits of the Chinese and their cheap mode of living, what a Chinaman could do for twenty-five cents, enabling him to live and leaving him a margin of profit, could not be done by people brought up differently, under four or five times the sum. Navigation by means of lorches, which in former times was carried on very extensively from Macao, belonged to the history of the past, as nowadays steam communication had supplanted everything in that line in the coasting traffic. He hoped things generally in Macao would improve, and the people be rendered more happy. Mutual exertions and help on the part of the Portuguese in these parts would contribute to that result, and he was sure they would all work for the benefit of the Portuguese people. His Excellency then went round the Club, expressing himself much pleased with all the arrangements for the comfort and amusement of the members, the Library especially, and, with his suite, took his departure after spending nearly an hour in the institution. His Excellency and suite proceeded to Yokohama this afternoon by the Oceanic.

THE visitors to the City Hall Museum for the week ending April 30th, were:—European, 223; Chinese, 3,035; total, 3,258.

WE would remind our readers of the Italian Opera Company's performance of "La Favorita," which will take place this evening for the benefit of Signora Sili. Almost the whole of the seats have been taken, and we do not doubt that the representation of Donizetti's magnificent work will be the great event of the present operatic season.

THE hawk who was charged on the 24th ult. with being concerned with another man not in custody in stealing a silver watch, worth $42, from the person of Theodolito Neves, a clerk in the employ of the Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company, was sentenced yesterday by Mr. Woodhouse to six months' hard labour. Inspector Staunton said the watch had not been found here, but that he heard it had been found at Canton. The prisoner admitted a previous conviction for larceny.

COLLISION BETWEEN THE MIKA-DO'S YACHT AND THE U.S. MAN-OF-WAR "ALERT"

The Huigo News of the 19th ult. says:—At one o'clock yesterday the U.S.S. Alert steamed out of port towards the Sound amid cheers from the crews of the other men-of-war in harbour, the band of the flag-ship playing "Home Sweet Home" and other appropriate airs. This morning the Alert is again at anchor in this harbour, having in the short interval narrowly escaped one of the most terrible perils of the sea.

Everything went well on board the Alert yesterday until about eleven o'clock p.m., when a vessel was seen approaching on the starboard, the position being about 14 miles below Cape Horn. The weather at the time was beautifully calm, although a little hazy, and as the two ships became closer and closer, it appeared evident to those in the Alert that the stranger—which afterwards proved to be the Emperor's yacht the Fingee-kun—was ignorant of their proximity. The steam whistle of the Alert was then sounded repeatedly, and several men shouted to the crew of the Fingee, but for some inexplicable reason no response was elicited. The Fingee continued her course, and her sharp bow struck the Alert just forward of the foremast, crashing right through the vessel's side, and forcing the anchor up to the foremast. This morning the Alert is again at anchor in this harbour, having in the short interval narrowly escaped one of the most terrible perils of the sea.

At the moment of collision two of the Alert's men jumped on board the Fingee, and were brought up to Kobe in that vessel, which steamed quickly off without making any inquiry respecting the state of the Alert, or whether assistance was needed. We are informed that a person on board the yacht called out in English:—"Have you sounded your yell? Are you making any water?" but before any reply could be given the vessels were widely separated, the Fingee steaming away for Kobe.

We are happy to be able to state that the casualties have been extremely trifling on board the Alert. One man who was asleep on a chest near where the Fingee's bow entered, received a rather severe cut on the head, and a few others were slightly scratched, but altogether there is no cause for congratulation that matters are not much worse. Indeed if there had been any sea on the Alert must have foundered.

The same paper of the 20th says:—We have succeeded in obtaining some further particulars respecting the unfortunate collision between the Alert and Fingee-kun, which explain how it came about that the former vessel carried a starboard helm at the time of the accident. It appears that when the Fingee was first sighted from the Alert, she was well away on the starboard bow, her green light only being visible, and it seemed likely that, if both vessels continued their course, they would have gone clear of each other. The officer in charge of the Alert at the time starboarded as a matter of extra precaution, and then it was that the Fingee's helm was ported, which had the effect of throwing her in the same direction as the Alert. At the time of collision both vessels were backing their engines, and as the Fingee swung clear they headed the same way.

The statement has been confirmed that no offer of assistance was made by the Fingee. Her Captain was asked to allow his vessel to be lashed to the Alert, but instead of doing so the Fingee steamed away, not having received any damage beyond a few trifling injuries to the wood-work about her bows.

A Court of Inquiry will be held on board the Richmond to-day, but most probably the result of the proceedings will not be made public.

It seems that a Chinaman employed as a servant on board the Alert, must have been much more seriously injured during the collision with the Fingee-kun than was first anticipated. The unfortunate man became paralysed from the effects of a blow he received, and died yesterday.

THE FRENCH AT HANOI.

The Haiphong correspondent of the Daily Press in a communication dated the 24th ult. stated that the Commandant of the French troops at Hanoi had determined to make an assault on the citadel of Hanoi on the Wednesday following (the 26th ult.), and painted in glowing colours the preparations which the 7,000 Annamese and Chinese, with their cannon and mitrailleuses had made to give the soldiers of the Republic a warm reception. We have immensely enjoyed the correspondence of this "special," although we had good reasons for believing that his reports were exaggerated and highly colored. Of course, everybody knew that the Saigon Government had despatched a comparatively large body of troops to Hanoi, and it was publicly stated in Saigon that a demonstration against the Black Flag pirates had been resolved on. It has also been widely recognised that the ultimate occupation of Tonquin by the French was merely a matter of time; but few people believed that matters were quite ripe for the mask being thrown off. France has her hands quite full at the present time in Europe and Tunis, without mixing herself up in further trouble in the Far East. However, on hearing of the reported expedition to Hanoi, we deemed it our duty to place ourselves in communication with reliable authorities in Saigon on the subject, and received assurances that the movement was merely a relief of the French Garrison in the country, but that a demonstration against the Black Flag pirates was under consideration and likely to take place. If we are to believe recent information received from Haiphong, the French have actually taken the bull by the horns, and occupied the citadel of Hanoi. Our correspondent is a reliable gentleman, whose good faith is beyond question; but under all circumstances it will be wise, considering that rumour is not always accurate, to accept his statements with some slight amount of reserve.

It would appear that on the 25th inst., the French commenced to bombard the citadel of Hanoi. Whether they, in the first place, informed the Annamese that such was their intention, or requested the natives to quietly give up the fortress is not stated; but we shall take steps to satisfy ourselves on that point, as it is one of much importance. The firing commenced from two gunboats at 8 in the morning, and the citadel capitulated at 10. It is reported that 300 Annamese were either killed or wounded, and that the French losses amounted to 6 or 7 hurt. This is the usual style of modern warfare, when Christian nations meet inoffensive and unenlightened barbarians. After this glorious victory, the gallant Frenchmen entered the citadel, and, according to our information, annexed the tidy little sum of one million dollars, the property of the Annamese Government, which they found in the treasury. This was only the beginning of what seems one of the vilest plundering raids of modern times. On April 26th a party of men from the French gunboats forcibly took possession of the chief Mandarin's yamen at Haiphong, and looted the sum of $66,000. The chivalrous warriors who set out from Saigon to put down the Black Flag pirates, after ruthlessly murdering hundreds of inoffensive Annamese, thought it politic to vary the monotony of unrelenting slaughter by a little wholesale house-breaking and plundering. Small fishes are proverbially sweet, but it is surely degrading for the gallant French nation to descend to contemptible expedients of this character. On the morning of the 26th, a gunboat left for Saigon with the news of the capture of Hanoi, and another for Hue to bring the French Minister to the scene of action. We are told that trade is brisk; that the Chinese are doing well, and hoping to do better; and that the natives are absolutely indifferent to the course of events.

Our "Special Correspondent" has received his orders to get ready, and will at once take the "war-path." We do not like to say too much about this business, until we receive confirmation of the above reports, but if our correspondent has made no mistake, the French Republic has a deal to answer for.

THE ONE THOUSAND GUINEAS.

It was generally believed in England last racing season that the two year old fillies were of superior class to the colts, and there can be little doubt that on public form good grounds existed for this belief. Gelmimiss, a speedy daughter of Rosicrucian and Nameless, won seven events right off the reel, retiring with an unbeaten certificate; Kermesse, by Cremorne out of Hazelcand, only suffered one reverse out of six attempts, in the Richmond Stakes at Goodwood where Dutch Oven, in receipt of 4lbs., beat her a short head. St. Marguerite on the same terms running a dead heat with Lord Rosebery's flying filly; Dutch Oven won nine races out of twelve for Lord Falmouth, and St. Marguerite, although beaten seven times out of eleven tries, showed form worthy of her distinguished lineage, whilst Nellie—a slashing daughter of Hermit and Hippia, winners of the Derby and Oaks in 1867—ran most consistently in eight races against first rate cattle, although only twice successful. Truly enough when the presumed best of the colts, Bruce—by See-Saw out of Carine—met Nellie and St. Marguerite in the Criterion Stakes, he won very handsomely after a desperate race, but then he was in receipt of one pound besides the allowance for sex, which in such a severe finish must have told. Besides there can be no doubt that both Gelmimiss and Kermesse were at least 5lbs. in front of Nellie and St. Marguerite, although it was generally considered that Mr. Crawford's slashing sister to Thebis was susceptible of the greatest amount of improvement. When we received the intelligence that Shotover, a second class filly, that as a two year old failed to win a single race, had repeated the Formosa victory in the Two Thousand; the probability of a repetition of the Blink Bonny coup of a quarter of a century ago in the Derby seemed more likely to be realised than it has ever had a chance of being since Mr. James Mervie kept Sunshine in the stable, and sent out the mighty Macgregor to do battle for the "yellow and black" against Kingcraft and a field of platers. As a two year old Shotover was not within 10lbs. of the best of the fillies, and yet she managed to beat the pick of the colts in the Two Thousand Guineas. And now she has succumbed to St. Marguerite in the One Thousand, Mr. Crawford the owner of the chestnut having won the same race a year ago with Thebis, a full sister to the victress on the present occasion.

NEWMARKET FIRST SPRING MEETING.

Friday 28th April 1882.

THE ONE THOUSAND GUINEAS STAKES, a subscription of 100 sovs each, half forfeit, for three year old fillies, st. 12lbs. each; the owner of the second to receive 200 sovs out of the stakes, and the third to save his stake. Rowley Mile—62 subs.

Mr. W. S. Crawford's ch. f. St. Marguerite, by Hermit—Devotion.....(G. Wood) 1
The Duke of Westminster's ch. f. Shotover, by Hermit—Stray Shot.....(F. Archer) 2
Mr. L. de Rothschild's ch. f. Nellie, by Hermit—Hippia.....(G. Fordham) 3

St. Marguerite competed in no less than 11 races as a two year old, winning on four occasions. She made her debut in the valuable Hurstbourne Stakes at Stockbridge, in June, where she finished a good third to Gelmimiss and Whitechapel, and a week later ran a dead heat with Dutch Oven for the same berth behind Kermesse and Marden in the Newmarket July, a length behind the winner. Two days later Fordham rode the daughter of Hermit and Devotion to victory in the Chesterfield, winning in a common canter from rather an indifferent field. At Goodwood St. Marguerite was sent out for the Richmond Stakes, but Dutch Oven won by a short head. Mr. Crawford's filly and Kermesse, the latter conceding 4lbs., running a dead heat for second place; and in the Rous Memorial, at the same meeting, Dutch Oven again proved her superiority, beating St. Marguerite on this occasion by three lengths. Pursuivant dividing the pair, Doncaster was the next best ground selected for the slashing sister to Thebis, a walk over for the Municipal Stakes on the St. Leger day, and a half length beating by Lord Falmouth's Little Sister the results of her journey to the famous Yorkshire town. In the Middle Park Plate, St. Marguerite again had the bad fortune to get "placed," occupying the third berth to Kermesse, and the American colt Gerald in a field of 13 runners. Lord Rosebery's filly conceding 4lbs., and winning very cleverly by a length, with half a length between the second and third. On the following day, St. Marguerite, with odds of 100 to 12 laid on her, beat Patience by six lengths in the Renewal of the Bletby Stakes, in the commonest of canter. At the Houghton meeting, C. Wood had the mount on Mr. Crawford's filly for the Criterion, but she was unequal to the task of giving Bruce one pound and her sexual allowance, the Derby favorite getting home cleverly by a length from Nellie, three quarters of a length separating Mr. Rothschild's representative from St. Marguerite. In the Home-bred Fox Foal Stakes three days after Foxhall's Cambridgehire victory, St. Marguerite was made a warm favorite against Paragon and Berwick, and justified the confidence of her supporters by winning cleverly by half a length from the first named. Thus it will be seen that the daughter of the sensational Derby winner, was a most consistent public performer throughout her two year old career. In the whole of her 11 races, she was never once unplaced although meeting the highest class fillies. It was confidently believed that St. Marguerite would greatly improve during the interregnum between two and three year old, and this belief has been justified by her having followed in the footsteps of her sister Thebis in the ladies race over the Rowley Mile. St. Marguerite was entered for the Column Produce Stakes at the Newmarket Craven, set for decision in April, but would most probably be kept over for her more valuable engagements. The winner of the One Thousand has, unfortunately, no engagement either in the Derby or the Oaks, but she has entered for the Oaks and the St. Leger, and has besides many valuable liabilities to meet at Ascot and Goodwood. Shotover, the second to Mr. Crawford's filly in the One Thousand, ran three times unsuccessfully as a two year old, and won the Duke of Westminster's first Two Thousand Guineas. It is quite on the cards that with St. Marguerite out of the way, Shotover may follow up Bend Or's Derby success for the "yellow jacket, and black cap."

Nellie, like her two conquerors in the One Thousand, is by Hermit, and there can be no doubt that Mr. Chaplin's chestnut son of Newminster, the winner of probably the most sensational Derby on record, has fairly made his mark as one of the most successful stallions of the century. Hippia, the dam of Nellie, won the Oaks for the late Baron Rothschild in 1867, a piece of good fortune for the Baron, as Achievement was at least a stone better animal than the daughter of King Tom, but on that particular day happened to be the victim of a sexual ailment which prevented her showing anything approaching her true form. Nellie ran eight times as a two year old, scoring three victories. Her debut was made at bad quarters in July, where, starting at 10 to 1 in a field of six runners, she landed the Exeter Stakes with consummate ease. At Leves she ran unplaced to Exeter, Peine de Coeur colt, and Herne the Hunter, in the Great South of England Breeders Stakes; but at York Autumn Meeting she greatly improved on this form, forcing Prince of Wales Stakes of £975 from the flying Dutch Oven and five others. It must be noted, however, that Lord Falmouth's "crack" was conceding the daughter of Hippia 5lbs. Third to Kermesse and Dutch Oven at even weights in the Doncaster Champagne was Nellie's next performance, and then in the Totis Memorial at Newmarket in September, Dutch Oven again beat her, although only by a short neck, Gerald being third on this occasion, with three others unplaced. Dutch Oven and Nellie again met in the Clearwell at the Newmarket October Meeting—with the same result, the brown daughter of Dutch Skater and Cantiniere conceding her chesnut rival gibs, and gaining the verdict by a short head; and two days later the excellence of the two year old form was demonstrated when Nellie, at weight for age, won the Great Challenge Stakes from Scobell, Tristan, Peter, Marzuka, Poullet, and Charliert. Mr. Rothschild's greatly improved filly made her final appearance as a two year old in the Criterion Stakes, where, after looking all over a winner until fifty yards from home, Bruce wore her down, and finally beat her by a length. St. Marguerite being third, three quarters of a length away. Nellie was reported amiss during the Spring, so it is likely enough she was not quite up to the mark when she succumbed to St. Marguerite and Shoter in the race under review, and although entered for the Two Thousand Guineas, she would probably miss that engagement. Nellie has no liability in the Derby; but she will have an opportunity of again meeting St. Marguerite in the Oaks and St. Leger.

SHANGHAI RACES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

By Telegraph.

Shanghai, 1st May, 1882.

Our Spring Meeting commenced this morning under most favorable circumstances. The weather, which had been threatening for several days, fortunately kept fine, and the course was in capital order. Proceedings commenced with the Legacy Cup, which fell to Merry Monk after a pretty race. Mr. St. Andrew's pony having evidently made great improvement since his last appearance in public. Prejudice, having no first Cornet against him, landed the Critterions easily enough in 2.6; and then a first class field came out for the Griffins. Montezuma had been greatly fancied ever since he won the Trial Stakes, and retained his pride of place to the end, although he was closely pressed in the quotation list by Potheen, Foxhound, Pillager, Ray Blas and several others. In the race Montezuma always held a good place, and eventually won very cleverly in 1.30 although had Alarm got well away, the result might have been different. Jim Fearon's success was of course very popular, and he was loudly cheered when the pony came back to scale. Well Dash won Mr. Kerfoot's first race in Shanghai in the Cathay Cup, and then Prejudice had another easy task set him in the Kiang-su Plate over a mile and three-quarters. The Jockey Cup was won by Imp, and the Taotai's Cup by Merry Monk, but the last named was lucky to get home first, as Shamrock, who got a very bad start, was rapidly closing with the dun at the finish. The day's sport concluded with the Racing Stakes, which fell to Foxhound, for whom Teels 1000 was refused the other day, after a fine race.

Details are appended:

SHANGHAI.

Tls. 1,000 have been offered and refused for Foxhound.
Etiquette requires 100 days of mourning to be observed by Li Hung-chang. It is open to him to observe 27 months of mourning for his deceased parent, if he likes to retire from office for that period.
The steamer Nagoya Maru reports that on the 25th instant she spoke to the American barque Euroda, in Lat. 32° 14' N. Long. 127° 53' E. The barque is from New Bedford on a whaling cruise, and desired to be reported.
District Magistrate Chen went round yesterday to most of the Consuls to protest against the new jinrikisha license arrangement. He would not mind an increase of the license fees to $14 or $2 a month, but putting them up to auction, as he phrases it, really hurts his feelings.
The I.G. of the I.M. Customs has been made (we presume an honorary) Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. What for, goodness knows. There are a few honorary Knights, Egyptian or Siamese nobilities, but Sir Robert Hart is a British subject, which they are not.
Last Sunday, a couple of shootists went to the neighbourhood of Woosung to bag the savage snipe, when an irate buffalo charged them; one of them, after a smart run, took refuge in a tree, and the gallop so improved his wind that he won a mile race on Mon day; the other solicited protection from the Bar signal, which he climbed up; this truly Ovidian metamorphosis was terminated by the agriculturist taking home the infuriated animal.
The Ta Hwangti has devised a fresh method of insulting Tributary Princes by instituting an order, which he proposes to confer on foreigners only. Foreigners, who are all inferior persons to the denizens of the Flowery Land, as everybody knows, are not as a rule to share in the decorations which meritorious Celestials enjoy. The order resembles the Légion d'Honneur, or the Order of Leopold of Belgium, inasmuch as there are different grades. The highest grade is to be offered to Reigning European Sovereigns. Such orders can only be accepted on reciprocal terms; a special mission is usually sent to the Sovereign, who gives an audience. Will the Hwangti give a fitting reception to the envoys of the reigning Sovereigns who send him an order in return? Certainly not, if they are received at all they will be received as the Messengers of Loyal Tributary States. However, we look with interest to the Edict (if there be one) constituting it when published in the Peking Gazette. The thing has been for some time under weigh, and we may have some remarks to make on a future occasion. We do not understand why our contemporary calls it the order of the Double Dragon; that is a well known chop on Drillings, it is true—Mercury.

TIENTSIN.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

20th April.

I am surprised that you people in Shanghai do not know the I. G.'s mission in Shanghai; none of your papers mention it. The Korean Ambassador in February last, in connection with the Tsungli Yamen, arranged for the I. G. to organize a Customs service in Korea the same as in China; Mr. Hughes, of Canton, leaves for Japan, and goes thence to Korea, on this mission. Commander Shufeldt, as United States Minister, goes via Chefoo to Seoul, and, as reported by Chinese, by the Chinese gunvessel Chinghai.

The Peking Gazette just arrived confirms Li Hung-chang's application to go on leave to Hupeh for a month, and the Governor-General of Canton is to take his place.

The Korean Ambassadors have arrived from Peking and at 1 p.m. to-day went on board the Chinese gunboat Chinghai; he received a salute of two guns instead of Chinese three; this perhaps may be the Korean way of saluting; in the gunboat their Excellencies and suite proceed to Seoul, and it is reported in Shanghai that the Chinghai will call at Chefoo and take in Commodore Shufeldt also.

It is reported that Mr. Watson of Hankow has been engaged by Mr. Tong King-sing; so their scheme cannot be worked without foreigners. The Overland Telegraph Company has issued a notice that from the 18th instant, the cost for telegrams will be 30 Mexican cents per word, with a minimum of 7 words, instead of 20 cents as before. So with the new change, placing it in the hands of the comparative class prices rise. I believe few messages will go forward, and high charges will not pay those concerned. From Kiachia to London the charge is not quite 20 cents per word against from Tientsin to Shanghai it is 30 cents. However, freights from Tientsin to Shanghai are one tael per ton by the C.M.S.N. Co., and telegrams have risen from 20 to 30 cents per word. Really, it is high time that Mr. Tong King-sing engaged Mr. Watson since Mr. Butler has gone home.—Shanghai Mercury.

HAIR DRESSING SALOON
HONGKONG HOTEL.

W. P. MOORE begs to inform the Gentlemen of Hongkong and Visitors that he has reduced the price of Hair-Cutting to 50 cents.
Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, he guarantees to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be exceeded in any part of the World.

Hair-Cutting.....50 Cents.
Shampooing.....25 Cents.
Shaving.....25 Cents.
Trimming Beards.....25 Cents.

MONTHLY CUSTOMERS TAKEN AT REDUCED RATES.
RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET.

Mr. MOORE begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH
to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald,
and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD.

The proprietor offers the Wash to the public
entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying
hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any
length of time in any climate. [268]

THIS DAY, FOUR P.M.

The report of business in Shanghai has effected a wonderful improvement in the market status of Docks. Whilst the stock was freely offered here at 110 and 111 per cent. premium, there were plenty buyers in the Model Settlement at 114 and 115. Of course, as soon as this state of affairs became generally known here, the stock became much firmer, and good business was transacted for cash at 114½ and 115. At the last quoted rate, the scrip is now in great demand; but no shares are forthcoming. A few more Docks have changed hands at 50 per cent. premium; but there are more sellers at the rate, and the stock may be said to be rather weak. All other stocks show a slight depreciation.
